“Prince of Peace,
control my will;
Bid my struggling
heart be still;
Bid my fears and
doubts to cease,
Hush my spirit
into peace.

May Thy will, not mine,
be done
May Thy will and
mine be one;
Chase these doubtings
from my heart,
Now Thy perfect
peace impart.”

This poem appeared in the “Church Of England Magazine” on March 3, 1858. To this day, no one knows the author, but the poem is beautiful:
